

Worship: Week Three

Main Idea:

How we worship reveals what shapes our worth.

Starter:

What are your plans for July 4th? Does your family have any holiday traditions?

Discuss:

How do you think culture is affecting your worship? How can we resist the influence of culture on our thinking?

Scripture:

Have your group read Psalm 100 and discuss:

- What do these verses say regarding the value of gathered worship?
- How does that mindset challenge or stretch your thinking about regular involvement in a local church?
- What do you think of when you hear the words “praise” and “worship”? Do you tend to think of these from an individual or group perspective? How, if at all, does this message impact that perspective?
- Do you consider “thanksgiving” to be a regular part of your worship? Why or why not?
- What do these verses say about the goodness of God?
- Share some ways you enjoy worshipping God or any areas you need to grow in your worship of God.

Apply:

Consider and discuss how our worth is shaped by worship.

Close with a discussion around how each person can better prioritize worship in every aspect of their life. Some possible starting points could be around

- Prayer
- Singing
- Gathered worship

*Remind your group that we are not having services June 30 or July 2 + 3.
